There will be an educational mass meeting at Alexander school house, Dec. 22, 1894. C. Riley, Z. H. Shultz, O. M. Shultz, and Dr. W. Alexander will be present and address the people on educational matters. Let all friends of education attend.

Work laying the rock in pit No. 2 at Ramsey lock commenced last Friday with a full force of expert stone-masons with Mr. Best as foreman. The work is being rapidly pushed and if the high water does not interfere, the walls will be built up out of danger in six weeks. (McLean County Star.)

Mr. Lonnie Stephens and Miss Katie Sanderfur were married at the residence of the bride, a few miles from Hartford, last Sunday evening. A large crowd of relatives and friends was in attendance, and Rev. R. A. Crowe performed the ceremony in a most beautiful manner. THE HERALD extends best wishes.

The Owensboro Leaf Tobacco Association held a meeting at the Auction house Wednesday for the purpose of changing the method of settling with sellers whose tobacco does not equal the samples. The matter was very freely discussed, and a committee of six was appointed to revise the by-laws of the Association and report at a meeting next week. (Hancock Clarion.)

'Squire A. H. Ross, who lives near Echols, happened to a very serious and painful accident recently. While endeavoring to throw his horse to operate on it for distemper, the animal fell upon him, breaking his leg. The horse in its struggles broke its own neck. 'Squire Ross is getting along as well as could be expected, but the fractured limb is giving him considerable pain.

Point Pleasant and Ohio county lost one of her best citizens in the death of Mr. W. J. Every, who died last Friday of paralysis of the bowels. His funeral was preached Saturday by Revs. Bean and Davidson, after which he was buried in Point Pleasant cemetery. Mr. Every was a good man and his life will be a lesson of good for future generations while his spirit is in heaven.

One day last week, while Mr. Joseph Burdette was driving near his home in Attnaville, he fell from the wagon and was almost instantly killed. The wagon was heavily loaded with fence posts. Mr. Burdette lost his footing at the front end of the load and fell to the ground, when the horses started forward and two wheels passed over his body lengthwise. He lived only about half an hour after getting hurt and never regained consciousness.

Deputy U. S. Marshal Moss Bullington went to Griffith yesterday and put Leonard Cox, of Louisville, an employee of the L. St. L. & T. railroad, and a son of Receiver Atilla Cox, under bond to appear as a witness in the case of Commonwealth vs. J. H. Baize, the preacher who is charged with illicit selling of liquor in Ohio county. Cox was summoned but failed to appear at the examining trial and an attachment was issued against him. (Owensboro Messenger of Thursday.)

The following officers were elected by Preston Morton Post, No. 4, G. A. R., December 8, 1894, at their headquarters in Hartford, Ky.: Commander, Joe L. Carson; S. V., John Black; J. V., Wm. C. Barnett; Surgeon, Wm. A. Carson; Quartermaster, Louis Genthner; Officer of the Day, Wood Tinsley; Officer of the Guard, R. P. Sorrell; Delegates to State Encampment, Wm. A. Carson, D. F. Tracy, Geo. Bunker; Alternates, Joe A. Bennett, Henry C. Shaver and Vink Stewart.

No sensible man, says an exchange, should get angry because a newspaper man does him for money. A dun is not an impeachment of the subscriber's integrity, but is simply an outcropping of the publisher's necessities. For instance, a thousand men owe a man from one to four dollars each. He has to dun them all to pay his expenses. Instead of getting angry and stopping the paper because the publisher asked him for his honest dues, the subscriber should thank the publisher.

There were 47 indictments found during the recent sitting of the Grand Jury, as follows: 1 for failing to furnish State Inspector with the map of mines, 1 for unlawfully shooting at another, 4 for carrying concealed, a deadly weapon, 16 for unlawfully selling whisky, 1 for housebreaking, 5 for petit larceny, 2 for grand larceny, 1 for creating a public nuisance, 2 for rape, 1 for forgery, 2 for furnishing liquor to a minor, 2 for unlawfully taking property, 1 for hindering commerce, 2 for assault and battery, 3 for assault, 3 for disturbing religious worship.

THE HERALD man dislikes very much to dun subscribers for what they owe on the paper. Their duty of paying their subscriptions promptly seems so plain that it is with much reluctance that he feels called upon to remind them of it. It is easy for you to find out how much you owe THE HERALD on subscription. Just notice the date opposite your name on the paper each week. Your subscription is paid up to the date indicated. Please examine the date now, and send us what you owe. We shall be compelled to send out bills in a few days if the parties owing do not come forward, and if you prefer not to be dunned, please respond promptly.

A writ was issued last Friday for the arrest of Albert Austin, charging him with malicious wounding, and he was brought to town and gave bail in the sum of $200, pending his examining trial which comes off next Friday. It will be remembered that several weeks ago Albert Austin and A. L. Barnard became involved in a difficulty near Sanderfur's Crossing, which resulted in young Barnard being shot in the shoulder. It was thought at the time that Barnard was getting along all right, but since then he has continued to grow worse and his death is now hourly expected. The late grand jury failed to indict Albert Austin, they seeming to think there was not sufficient evidence. The seriousness of Barnard's wound and his proximity to death caused the arrest of Austin Friday. The trouble at the Crossing was a most deplorable occurrence and has cast a cloud over the neighborhood.

Likens-Combes.

Our efficient and affable Circuit Court Clerk, Mr. G. B. Likens, and Miss Ruth Combes were quietly married yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Rebecca Vaughn, Rev. G. J. Bean officiating. The wedding was a very quiet one, only a few of the most intimate friends knowing of it until after the ceremony had been performed. After the ceremony the party left for the home of the groom's father near Sulphur Springs, where a reception was tendered them. They will return to-morrow and will take rooms at Mrs. Vaughn's. Both Mr. and Mrs. Likens are and have long been well known and have a wide circle of friends who will wish them all the happiness they so richly merit.

For Sale or Rent. A tenant house on Canine Avenue, commonly known as Dog street. Call on or address Jno. J. McHenry.

Shultz-Willett.

Cards will be out the 15th announcing the marriage of Prof. E. K. Shultz, principal of the Central City public schools, and Miss Mattie E. Willett, Pennabaker, Ky., at 10:30, December the 25th, at the bride's beautiful Meade county home. The groom is known well and favorably as one of western Kentucky's most efficient and popular educators and a gentleman worthy of the hand and heart of the lovely young lady with whom he is soon to be joined for life. After a short bridal trip they will return to Central City, where they will make their home. THE HERALD joins a host of friends in wishing that love, peace and plenty may always attend them.

BAILEYTOWN, KY.

Dec. 11, 1894--Business in town is very good. Mr. J. M. Porter, deputy sheriff, was in our town on business Thursday. A debating society was organized at this place Wednesday night with Mr. William Baise as chairman. The subject was: "Resolved that Columbus deserves more honor for discovering America than George Washington for defending it." Affirmative champion, Mr. M. A. Embury. Negative champion, Davis A. Royal. The decision was rendered in favor of the negative. Died, at his home at this place the 6th inst., Mr. Franklin James, of cancer of the stomach. He was buried at Baileytown church the 7th. He was one of the oldest citizens of the neighborhood and was respected and loved by all who knew him. The meeting at Select Christian Church is still in progress. Rev. Price is conducting it.

Mr. Vinson Embrey has been appointed postmaster of this place, vice John D. Oliver, resigned. Mr. Oliver Schofield White has been appointed postmaster at Flint Springs, Mr. Isaac C. Royal having resigned to go in the mercantile business at Friendship, near Fordaville, Ky.

Mr. A. J. McCastle and family, of Warren county, have moved to our town. Messrs. D. A. Royal and N. A. Embury are new matriculates in school at this place.

Mr. Ben Smith, Daviess county, was in our town last week. Dr. Willie Douglas, of near Cromwell, paid the family of Davis Royal a visit yesterday evening.

Mr. Thomas Smith, of near Select, was in our town Sunday. Uncle William White, of near Dexterville, Ky., paid his son Oliver a visit Wednesday at Flint Springs.

A. L. Royal made a business trip to Flint Springs Wednesday.

There were seven converts baptized at Select Sunday by Rev. Price, of the Christian church. QUILL DRIVEN.

Notice.

Taken up as a stray by J. W. Loney about 3 miles west of McHenry, Ohio county, Ky., one red steer, ear marked with crop and swallow fork in right ear and smooth crop in left ear and is about 2 years old last spring; appraised before me by J. W. Loney at $8. Given under my hand as Justice Peace Ohio county, Ky., this 7th day of December, 1894. 5044 R. T. REYNOLDS, J. P. O. C.

J. B. Lewis Co., Boston, are now making extensive alterations in their factory at Ayon, Mass., so that they can take care of their largely increased business. Last season they were obliged to decline some orders in justice to their customers. This speaks very loudly in praise of this concern, and while other manufacturers were closed, they were running over time. The Boot and Shoe Reporting Co.'s station show this first to be doing the largest volume of business of any manufacturer selling to the retail trade from Boston, which is the heart of the boot and shoe industry of the country. This means in these days of competition, that up-to-date styles, courteous treatment and prices lower than others care to offer, makes success.

Stray Notice.

Taken up as a stray by C. T. Westerfield, living near Bell's Run church, in Ohio county, on the 23d of November, 1894, one brown horse, age about 10 years, and about 15 hands high, left hind foot white and saddle and collar marks. Said horse has been appraised by me at the value of thirty-five dollars. Witness my hand this 3d day of December, 1894. JOSEPH MCINELLY, J. P. O. C. Attest: HOWARD HOLBROOK, Clerk.

Mr. Ira P. Wetmore, a prominent real estate agent of San Angelo, Texas, has used Chamberlin's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in his family for several years as occasion required, and always with perfect success.
